Space and Time! now I see it is true, what I guess'd at,
What I guess'd when I loaf'd on the grass,
What I guess'd while I lay alone on my bed,
And again as I walk'd the beach under the paling stars of the morning.

My ties and ballasts leave me, my elbows rest in sea-gaps,
I skirt sierras, my palms over continents,
I am afoot with my vision.

Walt Whitman

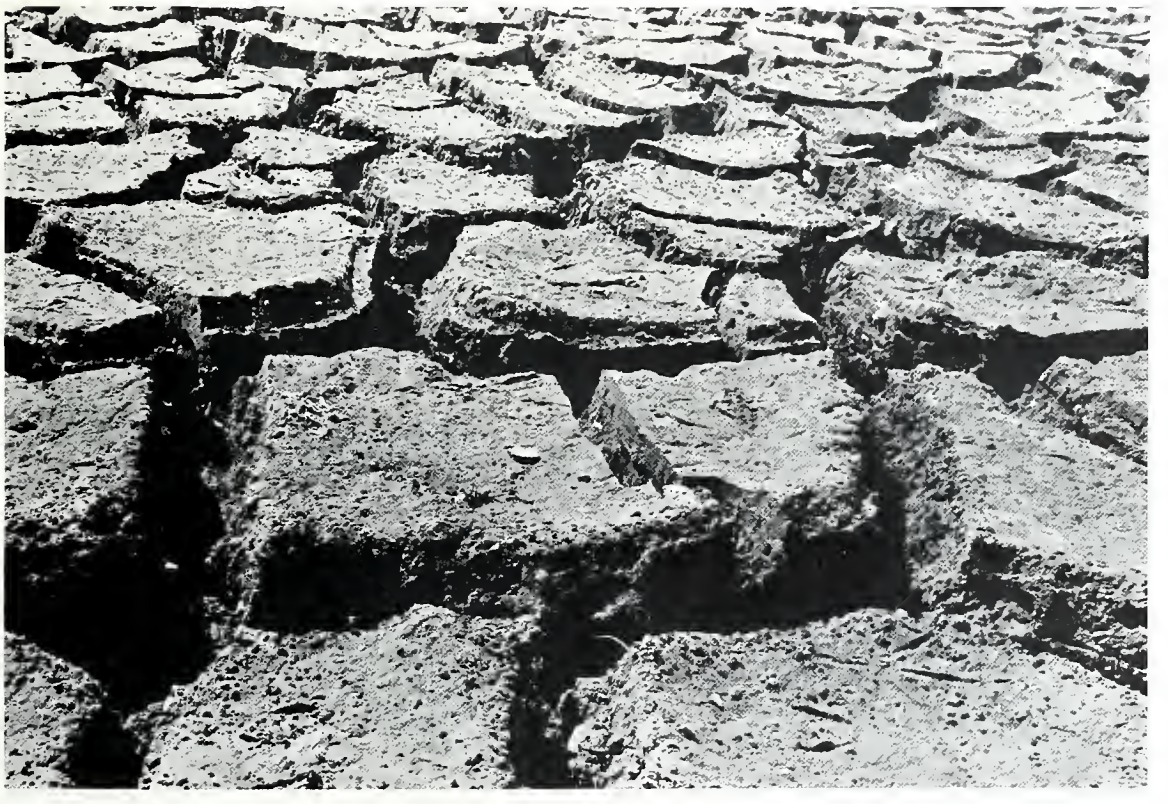
There once was a place of beautiful decay where everything lay in petrified stillness.

There was the stillness of closed minds, of inactive emotions, of unmotivated existence, and of sleeping dreams.

A world, floating in darkness, created out of the fantastic imagery of the brain . . . castle and swamp beyond the blackest splendor of any disbelieving eye.

The inhabitants of this dismal place were satisfied with their stagnant conditions. They rejoiced in this shallow existence because they believed there was none better.

The Oppressor of Knowledge presented ignorance as an opiate to curiosity.



Groping in the darkness, one young man, upon perceiving the light of inner knowledge, realized there must be something better.

"Chesire Puss," she began, rather timidly . . . "Would you tell me, please, which way I ought to walk from here?"

"That depends a good deal on where you want to get to," said the Cat.

"I don't care much where–" said Alice.

"Then it doesn't matter much which way you walk," said the Cat.

"–so long as I get somewhere," Alice added as an explanation.

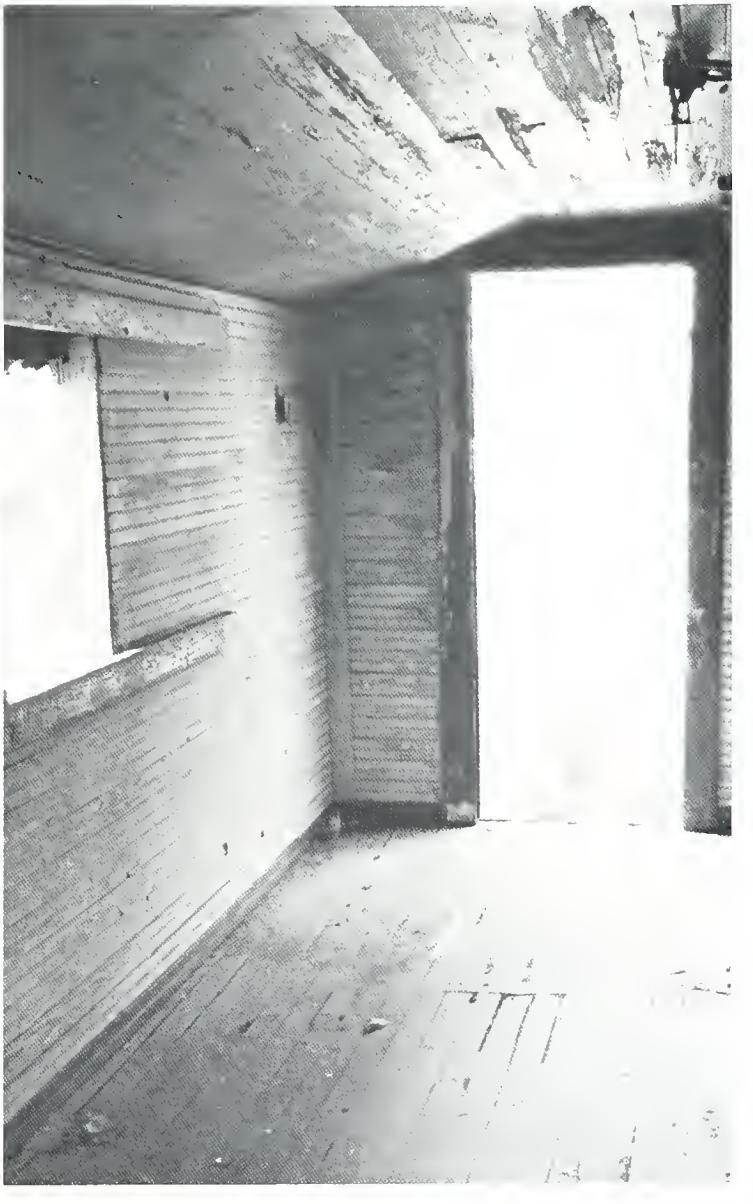
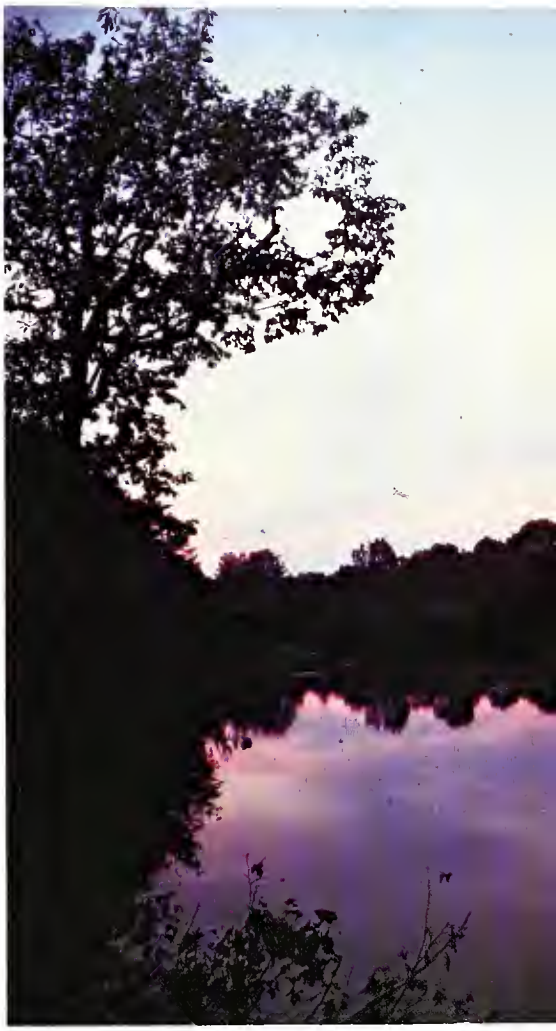
Lewis Carroll



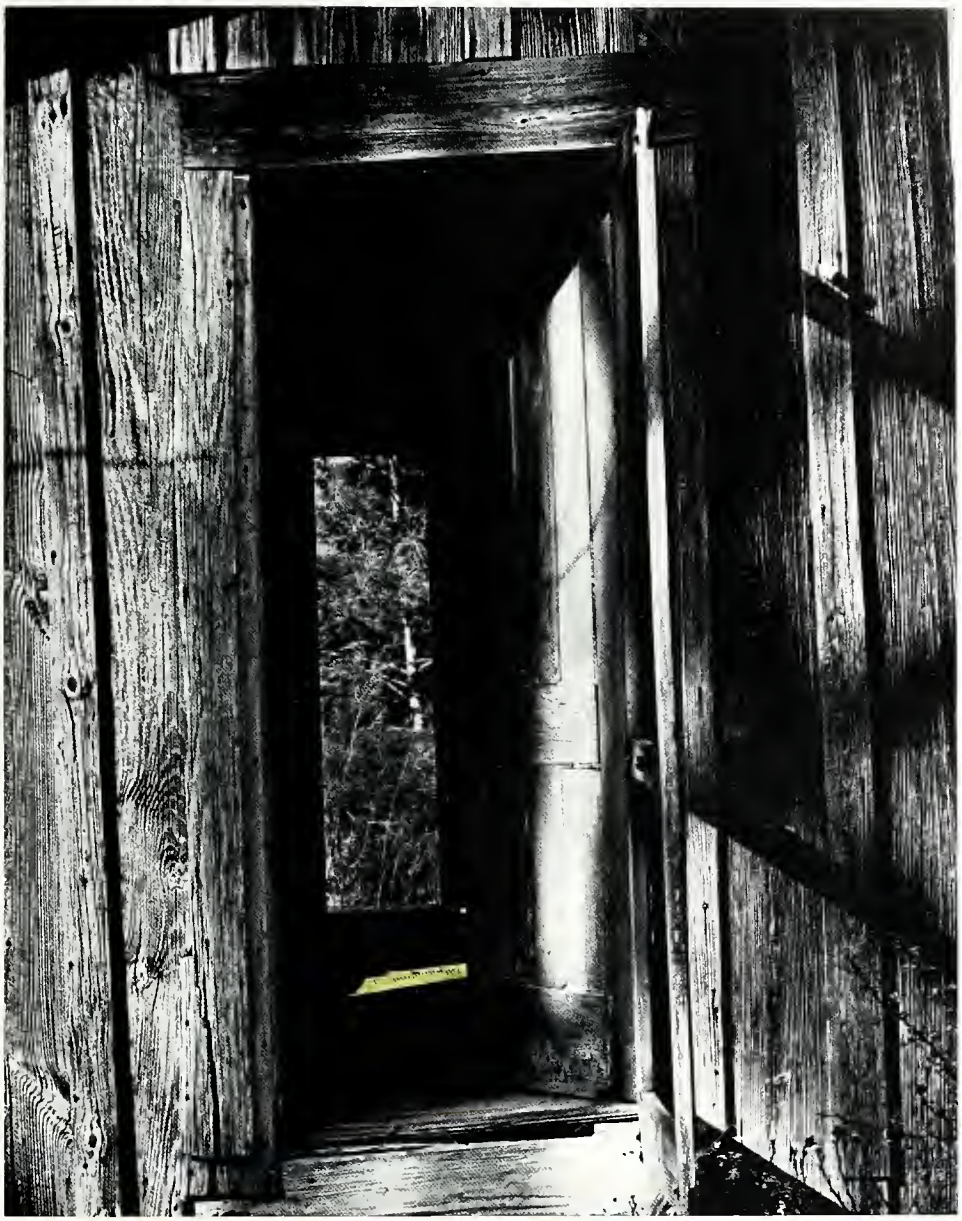
He wandered restlessly to still the rebellion within.



Beginning to investigate . . .

wandering . . .

on the Threshold of a Dream.



Does the Eagle know what is in the pit?
Or wilt thou go ask the Mole?
Can Wisdom be put in a silver rod?
Or Love in a golden bowl?
William Blake

And he smiled his first born smile.

COLLEGE NIGHT 1975
A PURPLE VICTORY

What is College Night? There really isn't a way of explaining it. You must live through one to receive all the joy and happiness it can bring. No one but you can understand the reason behind all the sore thumbs in the scene shops, 2:00 a.m. practices on Palmer stage and the headaches you've gotten from the guy sitting behind you in the orchestra pit playing the wrong notes on his horn. But this is what it takes. This is College night.

To get this unimaginable event going, leaders are first elected. Then come cabinet members, cheerleaders, cast, crews, athletics and many other important positions. Before anyone realizes what is happening, the big day arrives. There is no way to express the feelings you have while standing on stage and waiting for the judges' decision to be announced.

It is wrong to say someone loses College night. As long as one Gold goes through the campus yelling GV and one Purple is right beside him yelling PV, no one will lose. The overwhelming feeling of pride, hard work, and loving your side and its people stand up against any obstacle that blocks your path to success.

Purple leaders—Melissa Martin and Larry Snipes

Gold leaders—David Matthews and Margaret Tucker

College Night 1975 was dedicated to Sergeant Milton Martin.

Basketball

When a new head coach takes over, it usually means a somewhat frustrating year in rebuilding his team for the future. For a new coach to establish a winning team almost automatically takes one to two years.

Such was not the case when Bill Elder accepted the head coaching job at UM. In his first year, Elder led his team to an unprecedented year for University of Montevallo Basketball.

Not only was the Won-Loss Record (23-9) a new season high, but the team also captured four Tournament Crowns—The Montevallo Tip-Off Tournament, The Magic City Classic, The Southern States Conference Tournament, and The N.A.I.A. District 27 Tournament. The District 27 Tournament gave the Falcons the #1 Ranking of Alabama Small Colleges and also earned the team a trip to Kansas City to compete in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics Tournament.

In Kansas City, the Falcons suffered their only tournament loss. Illinois Wesleylan held off a late Falcon surge and went on to win, thus drowning any hopes of a National Championship for the University of Montevallo.

Baseball

1974 showed a complete change in the coaching personnel in the University of Montevallo Baseball Program. Bob Reisener joined the club as head coach and a year later, Kenny Gonzales accepted the position of assistant coach.

The season showed the Falcons finish with a 15-25 mark. The "oh-so-close"games that can somehow go either way did not seem to tilt toward the UM side. A total of 8 games were lost by 1 run decisions and another 4 were lost by only 2 points.

Although the Montevallo team did not end the year with a winning season, Coach Reisener accomplished the building of a solid foundation for the years to come.
